One possible version:

I Like Reading

Reading is my favorite hobby. I can never stop the love for reading because books are like wise teachers as well as good friends in my life. As we know, books are the source of knowledge. I benefit a great deal from reading.

There are a variety of books for us to choose from, like history books, science books, literary books and so on. But what interests me most is literary books, especially those by famous writers. For one thing, they help to improve my writing skills and broaden my horizons. For another, they can enrich my life and provide me with great fun.

Isn't it a pleasure to have great calm in mind while you are reading? （113 words）

附：听力材料

(Text 1)

W: Have you ever been to Australia?

M: Yes. I studied in Sydney for two years after I graduated from high school.

(Text 2)

W: Can we have our check please?

M: That'll be $46.50. Will this be cash or credit?

W: Wait. Right here you charged us twice for the milk.

M: I'm so sorry. Let me take that off. There you go. Your new total is $43.50.

(Text 3)

M: Hi Jane. How is your new neighbor Miss Green? Is she quieter than your last neighbor?

W: Well, I feel like I am living next to a dancing hall now.

(Text 4)

M: How is he?

W: Not too bad. He has hurt his right leg but it's not at all serious and we've found nothing else wrong with him.

M: Can I take him home?

W: Yes, after the lab has sent us the rest of the test results which will be in about three hours.

(Text 5)

M: Catherine, you look great in this photo. When was it taken?

W: Oh, my friend, John, a photographer took it when we were on holiday.

(Text 6)

W: You know, Joe, driving is a lot faster than taking the bus, but it takes ages to find a parking space here in the center.

M: There's a car park over there.

W: At three pounds an hour? I don't think so! But I see one over by the road sign.

M: It's a no parking sign. Look! There's one by the park over there.

W: And it's under a tree. We found a good one, didn't we?

(Text 7)

M: How did your parents choose your name, Darina Rosemary Richter?

W: My first name comes from Slovakia. It doesn't have a special meaning, but I know my grandmother chose it. My second name is German and it means "judge". It was chosen by my father, because he is a German teacher.

M: Why did your grandmother choose Darina?

W: Well, she knew a girl that lived next door to her with the same name, and she likes it.

M: Would you like a different name?

W: No, I wouldn't. What's your favorite name?

M: Matthew. It means "gift of God". You know what name Mike likes?

W: What?

M: Harald, which means "the man who leads the army". And it comes from Norway.

(Text 8)

W: Hello. May I help you?

M: Yes, please. I'd like to book a flight to Singapore. It'll be my first time there. I heard that it's a very nice place to visit.

W: It sure is. What are your leave and return dates?

M: I'd like to leave on June 4th and return on the 8th.

W: Let me check the flights on those days. I can reserve a seat for you on the morning flight on June 4th and a seat on the evening flight on June 8th. Both the flights take about 5 hours. How does that sound?

M: Perfect, thanks.

W: Alright. Would you like to book a hotel in Singapore?

M: No. I'll be staying at a friend's house. He teaches in a university.

W: Would you like to book a city tour?

M: Oh no, thank you. My friend will be showing me all of the sights in the city.

(Text 9)

W: Excuse me, sir. I'm doing an interview for the restaurant. Could you tell me what you think of it?

M: Well, the decoration is good. But it's too noisy. Besides, the cleanliness needs to be improved. I saw mice in the kitchen when I was on my way to the washroom. If I hadn't been a nice guy, I would've reported it.

W: Did you really see mice in the kitchen?

M: I did see something like them but of course I didn't take a close look. Don't challenge me. Just make the place cleaner. I've run a restaurant before. I know it's not easy to make the place 100% clean.

W: So what do you think about our food?

M: Do you want me to be honest?

W: Of course. That's the reason why we are doing the interview.

M: I think the food should be more traditional. Don't you know that your beef doesn't taste like beef and your fish doesn't taste like fish at all?

W: Will you suggest our restaurant to your friends?

M: It depends. Well, I think I have to go now. Just remember that you must keep your place very clean.

W: Thanks a lot.

(Text 10)

W: Last night, Kim was driving home from work. She was on Broad Street. Traffic was heavy and she was driving carefully. At the crossroads of Broad Street and Park Road, Kim had the green light and drove into the crossroads. Suddenly, a truck went through the red light and hit the side of Kim's car. No one was hurt, but the damage to Kim's car was heavy. She couldn't drive home.

The police arrived in two minutes. Kim explained the accident. She said she had the green light and the other driver went past the red light. But, she couldn't believe the other driver's story. He told the officer that the accident was Kim's mistake. He said that Kim passed the red light! The officer looked at both drivers and asked, "Did anyone see the accident?" A young lady was standing in front of a clothing shop. She walked over to the officer and said, "I was driving a sports car right in back of this woman. Her story is correct. This man went through the red light and hit the side of her car."
